ABSTRACT

Divided into three sections, "Outstanding Selections," "Additional Titles," and "May Fill a Special Need," the ninth annual booklist of the Young Adult Reviewers of Southern California covers books published during 1973. The reviewers are professional librarians employed in school and public libraries whose purpose is to evaluate young adult books in terms of anticipated use in the high school and public library. Books are listed alphabetically by author within the aforementioned categories; publisher, price, and a short review are included with each entry. (KC)

9th ANNUAL, 1974

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

YOUNG ADULT REVIEWERS OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA is an independent organization of professional librarians from both high school and public library systems. The primary purpose of YAR is to review materials (received from contributing publishers) which have appeal to young adults of grades 8 through 12. It evaluates these materials through open discussion, in terms of their anticipated use in the high school and public library.

The booklet has been divided into three categories: Outstanding Selections; Additional Titles; and, May Fill a Special Need. The symbol RBB after an annotation indicates that libraries may want to read the book before buying due to individual selection policies.
